Re: Local Public Safety Coordinating Counsel (LPSCC) Memberships

I would like to request the Board of Commissioners' approval of the following new non-voting LPSCC Memberships per the LPSCC Bylaws and ORS 423.560.

Oregon State Police Lt. Jose Orosco, who was appointed in 2021 for a 3-year LPSCC membership term, was recently reassigned to the Salem area. As a result, Lt. Jamison Goetz has been newly assigned to the McMinnville Area and, therefore, will replace Lt. Orosco in the current LPSCC vacancy through 2024 with Board of Commissioner approval.

Additionally, per statute and the attached Presiding Judge Orders #22-004 and #22-005, Judge Easterday has appointed Judge Ladd Wiles as the voting judicial member of LPSCC. Per the second order, Judge Easterday has appointed Carol Fredrick as the voting defense counsel representative. Ms. Fredrick most recently also served as the Chair to LPSCC but stepped down as of January 2022. LPSCC is still pending the nomination and appointment of a new LPSCC Chair which should be determined in the next LPSCC meeting on 5/25/22.

Thank you for your consideration of this LPSCC membership update.
