Dear Commissioners:

Appointment to Mid-Willamette Valley Area Commission on Transportation (MWACT)

According to MWACT bylaws, appointments to MWACT are for a two-year term. The Yamhill County Board of Commissioners representative, Commissioner Casey Kulla, will be leaving the Yamhill County Board of Commissioner's as of December 31, 2022, which is halfway through his MWACT term. Please let us know your appointment to complete his term by mid-January 2023.

MWACT hybrid meetings are normally held on the first Thursday of each month, as needed, at 3:30 p.m. via the Zoom and in-person in our offices at MWVCOG; 100 High Street SE, Suite 200; Salem, OR. Agendas are distributed via mail and digitally one week prior to each meeting. They are also posted on the MWVCOG website calendar and the ODOT-MWACT website.

Please let us know who your replacement representative will be by mid-January 2023. If you have any questions, please contact Mike Jaffe at the Council of Governments at mjaffe@mwvcog.org or Dan Fricke at Daniel.L.Fricke@oregon.gov.

Respectfully,

Michael Jaffe
MWVCOG Transportation Planning Director
