

Dear Oregon Attorney General Dan Rayfield and United States Attorney General Pam Bondi,

Legal uncertainty harms everyone and benefits no one. It is currently unclear how Oregon’s Sanctuary Promise Act, Oregon’s Public Records Act, and federal laws interact and apply due to apparent conflicts, including in situations where a local government is served with an administrative subpoena pursuant to 8 USC §1225.

The undersigned Oregon counties encourage the parties in Marion County v. Koteck et al (Case 6:25-cv-01464-MC) to ask the federal court to issue a detailed opinion that provides the type of clarity that will help all local governments ensure they are properly following federal, state, and local laws.

Regards,
